

PRE-AICE for Junior High Schools (Part of Cambridge's IGCSE program)

NEED FOR CHOICE IN CLAY:

Accelerated Learning is the number one Choice offering junior high school parents indicated in their responses to the CCDS School Choice Survey. 64% rated accelerated learning/college preparatory as a 4 or 5 in level of importance. This feeder pattern of Cambridge programs offers a prime opportunity for students to experience a unified program from kindergarten through graduation. If students continue in the program from elementary to high school, they will encounter a cohesive upward spiral of presentation of instruction and a high level of expectations thereby better preparing them for college and career.
