

2013-2014 AGREEMENT BETWEEN
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF BRADFORD COUNTY
AND SCHOOL DISTRICT OF CLAY COUNTY
FOR STUDENTS WHO RESIDE OUT OF COUNTY

This agreement, entered into this 10th day of April, 2013, by and between the SCHOOL DISTRICT OF BRADFORD COUNTY, a body corporate, hereinafter called "Bradford Board", and the SCHOOL DISTRICT OF CLAY COUNTY, a body corporate, hereinafter called "Clay Board" is for the 2013-2014 school term.

WITNESSETH

That for, and in consideration of, the mutual covenants and conditions hereunto entered by and between the parties hereto, it is agreed as follows:

SECTION ONE

- A. Students residing in Clay County, including and limited to those students residing in the Kingsley Lake area, have approval to attend public schools in Bradford County.
- B. Students residing in the Kingsley Lake area of Clay County who gain approval to attend public schools in Bradford County may be transported by: their parents, legal guardians, or the Bradford Board.
- C. When transportation is provided by the Bradford Board, the transporting District may count the out-of-county students and collect state funding on the basis of this count, in accordance with the reporting rules of the Florida Education Finance Program.

SECTION TWO

- A. There shall be a continuation of an open door policy between the Bradford Board and the Clay Board concerning those students residing in Bradford County who wish to attend McRae Elementary School. Keystone Heights Elementary School is a closed school due to capacity enrollment. Students having approval by the Clay Board to attend McRae Elementary School shall be allowed to do so by the Bradford Board. Keystone Heights Junior-Senior High School is an open school to those Bradford County students who were approved to attend McRae Elementary School. Due to capacity enrollment at Keystone Heights Junior-Senior High School, other Bradford County students applying to attend will be allowed to attend based upon space availability as determined by school administration and approved by the Clay Board.
- B. Students residing in Bradford County who gain approval to attend public schools in the Keystone Heights area of Clay County must be transported by their parents or legal guardians.

SECTION THREE

A. All such out-of-county students shall be subject to all rules and regulations of the school they will be attending, as prescribed for all other students attending Clay County and Bradford County School Systems. The name and address of each such Clay County resident attending Bradford County Schools shall be furnished to the Superintendent of the Clay County Schools. Likewise, the name and address of each such Bradford County resident attending Clay County Schools shall be furnished to the Superintendent of the Bradford County Schools.

IN WITNESS, WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused these present to be executed by their duly authorized chairperson of their respective Boards and their corporate seals to be affixed hereto, and attested by their duly authorized Superintendent of Schools, acting as ex-officio secretary, respectively.
