

Agreement between the School Board of Clay County and Timothy Bell, Law Enforcement Officer of the Clay County Sheriff's Office

The School Board of Clay County will secure the service of Clay County Sheriff's Detective Timothy Bell (the Contractor) for delivery of prevention and intervention services as part of the enforcement of Florida's School Attendance Statutes September 1, 2007 – June 30, 2008. Specifics of this agreement include:

- Conducting "Consequences of Truancy" conferences for identified students and their parents/guardians.
- During this conference, participants will be informed of local school board attendance policies, the short term and long term benefits of regular school attendance, the Florida Compulsory School Attendance Law, legal consequences for violation of attendance laws, and community resources. Participants will be given the opportunity to enter into an Attendance Improvement Plan Agreement, in lieu of being referred for legal action.
- The Contractor will conduct home visits as deemed necessary by Student Services staff and assist as needed in the monitoring and enforcement of student's Attendance Improvement Plan Agreement.
- The contracted rate for services is $25/hour. With that, the contracted amount for assisting in the "Consequences of Truancy" conference along with conducting additional home visits as deemed necessary will not exceed 120 hours during the 2007-2008 school year. Total value of the contract will not exceed $3,000.
- The Contractor shall invoice the School Board of Clay County on a monthly basis with invoices showing dates, locations, names of students/parents contacted and specific hours of service. The School Board of Clay County will make payment following the receipt of an acceptable invoice.
- The School Board of Clay County will provide supplemental materials that are required or would enhance the delivery of the services. All requests for additional materials must be approved in advance by the Director of Student Services.
- Norma Martin, Director of Student Services, will serve as the principal School Board of Clay County contact throughout the contract period. Karla Nachtsheim, School Social Worker, is an alternate contact.

- The School Board of Clay County and the Contractor reserve the right to terminate this agreement, with 30 days notice, at any time during the funding period.
