REPORTING OFFICER NARRATIVE

Victim GOODING, TERRI ALJETS	Offense BURGLARY OF DWELLING UNARMED NO
---------------------------------	--------------------------------------------

On 11/30/2010, at 0900hrs, while on patrol, I responded to 3342 Westfield Dr. in reference to a burglary. Upon arrival, I contacted victim Terri Gooding, who stated that an unknown person(s) had broken into her vehicle and had stolen some items.

Further investigation revealed that Terri Gooding arrived home around 1800hrs on 11-29-10. She stated that she inadvertently left her garage door up and her vehicle parked inside the garage-unlocked. When she arrived at work on today's date, she discovered that her work issued laptop was missing. When she returned home, she realized that someone had stolen the laptop from inside the vehicle before she had left this morning. She then notified the Sheriff's Office. She had no suspect information.

Terri Gooding stated that the interior garage door to the kitchen was unlocked but it did not appear that anyone had entered inside. She advised that she had placed her laptop bag containing the laptop on the front passenger floorboard. Nothing was missing from the garage or the interior of the living area of the residence. Terri Gooding completed a sworn written statement. Three residents were contacted in reference to a canvass. Danielle Nagle at 3365 Westfield Dr. did not see anything. Amy Freeman at 3273 Avalon Dr. did not see anything. Len Winkler at 3322 Westfield Dr. did not see anything. Three other Burglary to Auto victims were located in the canvass that were not within line of sight of Terri Gooding(reference CCR # 2010049601). D/S M. Romano also initiated an additional Burglary to Auto report(reference CCR# 2010049579) from a different area of the Glenhaven subdivision. I also checked the pond on Westfield Dr., the Glenhaven subdivision park, and the general area for additional evidence, but none was discovered at the time of this report. The laptop, valued at $1118.50, was entered into NCIC as stolen. The laptop bag was valued at $40.00. Terri Gooding stated that she had personal information in the laptop and was responsible its safekeeping. Total loss-$1158.50. CST C. Adams arrived and processed the scene for evidence.

This case is transferred to the General Investigation Section.
