

Jayne M. Hobgood
Professional Development for Achievement
5701 Mariner St., Suite 805, Tampa, FL 33609
813-817-5701
jhobgood@tampabay.rr.com

I am a consultant with Professional Development for Achievement. Trained by Mary Lewis and employing her program, Writers in Control, I help teachers improve their instruction with critical writing strategies. This analytical approach has resulted in higher student achievement in many school districts throughout the state of Florida.

Degrees:

M.S. Educational Leadership, National Louis University, 2004
M.S. Special Education, Indiana University, 1975
B.A. English, Marian College, Indianapolis, IN, 1971

Certifications:

English Language Arts, Grades 5-12
Reading Endorsement, Grades 5-12
ESOL Education Certification
Gifted and Talented Education Certification
National Board for Professional Teaching Standards, EA-ELA

Teaching Experience:

20 Years Classroom Teaching
Elementary, Middle School, High School
Instructor, Summer Sessions (Creative Writing and Drama)
Hillsborough County Gifted and Talented Program

Awards and Recognitions:

Outstanding High School Educator, 1993, Bristol-Myers Squibb and University of Evansville, Evansville, Indiana
District Teacher of the Year, 1999-2000, Hillsborough County, Tampa, Florida
National Presidential Scholar Teacher, Washington, D.C., 2004

Publications:

Hobgood, J. (1998). Finders Keepers : Owning the Reading They Do. Voices from the Middle, vol. 5:2 (pp 26-29). (Publication of NCTE)
Hobgood, J. Trapped in a Month of Mondays. Journal of Adolescent and Adult Literacy, 41:2 (pp 152-155).(Publication of the International Reading Association)

Presentations:

NCTE Central Florida Writing Project, Orange County Council of Teachers of English Regional Conference, June 1999 Orlando, FL.
NCTE Annual Convention November 1999, Denver, CO.