

2007 State Science Fair Winners

Senior Division:

Daniel DiPiero (RHS) 4th place – Behavioral Sciences
Katie Termer (CHS) 2nd place – Botany
Scott Arend (RHS) Recognition Award- Botany
Phillip Lichlyter (OPHS) 4th place – Medicine and Health
Mitchell Stecker (RHS) Honorable Mention- Physics

Junior Division:

Mario Nardoni (OLS) Honorable Mention – Physics
Matthew Emig (LAJH) 4th place- Engineering
Andrew Smith (PCA) Recognition Award – Mathematics
Lydia Lichlyter (OPJH) 3rd place – Medicine and health

Note:

Katie Termer received a $10,000 scholarship from Rayonier, a $1,000 cash award from Agriculture in the Classroom, a $500 cash award from the science department at Clay High School, and a 1st place, $1,000 cash award from the Phyto-pathological Society at the International Science and Engineering Fair. She also has been given a student assistant position in the research lab at the University of Florida.

Matthew Emig received a cash award of $300.00 from the Engineering Society of Florida.

Katie Termer and Phillip Lichlyter represented Clay County at the International Science and Engineering Fair in Albuquerque, New Mexico.