APRIL 2012

ProStart Teacher Training Institute--DEADLINE THIS MONTH

The ProStart Teacher Training Institute will take place June 24-29, 2012 at Johnson & Wales University, North Miami campus.

The ProStart Teacher Training Institute was developed to provide Florida ProStart instructors with the knowledge necessary to teach the ProStart curriculum. The Teacher Training Institute is built around topics covered in the ProStart curriculum. At the conclusion of the week, attendees will feel more comfortable teaching the materials covered in the ProStart Curriculum.

FOUR YEARS OF TRAINING

The ProStart Teacher Training Institute is divided into four years of participation.

First Year Attendees—cover Knife Skills and Dining Room Service as well as Stocks and Cooking Fundamentals in Food Production.

Second Year Attendees—take an in-depth look at Garde Manger, Advance Cooking Techniques and Soups and Sauces.

Third Year Attendees—continue their ProStart Teacher Training experience by covering Special Event Planning, Advance Kitchen Design and Layout, as well as Cake Decorating and Plated Desserts.

Fourth Year Attendees—emphasis on Baking & Pastry along with Entrepreneurship.

A more detailed schedule of the week, along with all the class topics for each year, will be provided in May. Due to limited space, only participants able to stay for the entire week may attend.

EVENING ACTIVITIES

On Sunday evening, FRLAEF and JWU will host a welcome reception for all attendees. There will be at least one evening industry visit later in the week. ServSafe foodsafety training and exam will be offered to attendees one evening as well.

LOCATION

All classes will be held at JWU North Miami campus, 1701 NE 127th Street, North Miami, Florida, which is located 20 minutes north of the Miami International Airport and 20 minutes south of the Ft. Lauderdale Airport. Detailed directions will be provided.
